Hi, we're Kayla and Eric! We're farm kids who met doing theatre in the Twin Cities area of Minnesota and have been soulmates ever since. We love nature, the arts, adventure, and our pets. We own Wildhaven and are dedicated to inspiring others through slow and sustainable living. We hope you feel rested and rejuvenated after your stay with us!

Eric (he/him), your elopement officiant, has a background in theatre and has always loved the art of storytelling. In the capacity of officiant, he is passionate about learning couples' stories, what makes them unique, what brings them joy, and weaving that into a beautiful ceremony. Additionally, Eric enjoys the peace and serenity that abounds at Wildhaven and takes every chance he can to wander in its splendor.

Kayla (she/her), your elopement coordinator, combines her expertise as an interdisciplinary artist and former non-profit event planner to craft unique Wildhaven elopement experiences that resonate with your individuality and as a couple. Kayla's passion for nurturing self-love, well being, and caring for others, guides her work helping soulmates plan their dream elopements. When her schedule permits Kayla also enjoys photographing couples celebrating their marriages at Wildhaven.
